WHEREAS, there are only two places where the ballots can be printed and purchased, Phoenix Graphics and Fort Orange Press, with a cost range of 42 to 57 cents or higher per ballot; and

WHEREAS, all unused ballots are held for four months and then discarded; and

WHEREAS, on February 5, 2014, the New York State League of Women Voters testified for the need of State monies to ensure the “acquisition of technological tools that will provide an accurate, reliable, professional voting system that will instill confidence in all voters”; and

WHEREAS, varying greatly from year-to-year, the cost for purchasing Ulster County election ballots continues to be substantial, $52,249.04 in 2011, $90,493.98 in 2012, and $51,459.80 in 2013; and
